

Elevation Church FAQs

What time should I arrive at Elevation Church?

We recommend you arrive early so you can park and to allow time to check into Elevation Kids. This would be approximately 10mins before the service starts.

Is Elevation Church mainly for young people?

At Elevation Church, we value the next generation, but church is for everyone! We regularly welcome people of all ages to our weekend services.

Are there Parents Room facilities?

Yes. At every location there is a Parents Room with change table and feeding areas. You can even watch the service in the Parents Room!

Does church cost money?

Our services and Elevation Kids programs are free & open to everyone!

I don't know anyone at church. How do I get to know people?

We have friendly hosts and team who would love to help you get connected with others: whether that is to find someone to sit with in the service, connecting in the café, or joining a life group.

What do I wear?

You don't have to dress up or try to impress, come as you are!

Do I need to bring food or water?

You do not need to bring food or water. Light food, coffees and other drinks can be purchased on site.

Is there air conditioning and heating?

Elevation Church is about creating environments – as part of that we have air conditioning and heating to make you feel comfortable.

Do I have to be a Christian/have the same beliefs to attend?

You are welcome at Elevation Church no matter who you are or what you believe.
